Washington, DC 20008

Dear Ambassador Zhou:

The Maryland-China Business Council, Inc. (MCBC) Board of Directors wishes to express its deepest sympathies to you and to the Chinese people in the wake of the mounting loss of life and tremendous suffering caused by the recent devastating earthquake in western China.

MCBC applauds the relief effort being led by the valiant personnel of the Chinese military, who are attempting to access stricken area and rescue victims trapped in rubble. We add our words of encouragement and support of their critical work.

Again, we wish to convey our deepest condolences to the Chinese people via you and your offices. MCBC is encouraging its members and friends to contribute to the earthquake relief effort, directing them to make as generous gifts as possible to the Chinese Red Cross in this, China's hour of need.

Sincerely,

Andy Dubosky
President & Chairman
Maryland-China Business Council, Inc.
And the MCBC Board of Directors
