

The Governor's Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs

Martin O'Malley, Governor – Anthony G. Brown, Lt. Governor – Brenda Donald, Secretary

Governor's APA Summit

Monday, April 30, 2007
9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Miller Senate Office Building
11 Bladen Street
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Martin O'Malley, Governor

The Honorable Norman Y. Mineta

The Governor's APA Summit will present a unique opportunity for Asian Pacific American community leaders and activists to exchange ideas and best practices in roundtable discussions with policy makers and other leaders in the APA community. Governor Martin O'Malley and former Secretary of Transportation Norman Y. Mineta will address community leaders along with other high-level state, local and federal government officials who will participate in this event. Breakout sessions will cover subjects important to the APA community, including:

- Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness
- Education, Healthcare and Aging
- Business Development
- Grants and Capacity Building

Why Should You Attend This Summit?

- To meet and hear from high-level state and local government officials
- To advocate for the APA community's greatest needs
- To share your ideas on how best to address those needs
- To learn best practices from other leaders in the APA community
- To be a voice in the development of new creative ideas
- To expand your resource network

Who Should Attend This Summit?

- Non-profit Organizations
- Volunteer Organizations
- Faith-Based Organizations
- Community Leaders
- Social Service Providers
- Legislators and Aides
- Public Policy Makers
- State and Local Government Representatives
- Educators
- Researchers and Academics

The Governor's APA Summit is free and open to the public. For program and registration information, please visit www.marylandasian.org and click on the link for the Governor's APA Summit.