

CARLA ANDERSON HILLS

Carla A. Hills is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hills & Company, International Consultants, which provides advice to international firms on investment, trade, and risk assessment issues abroad, particularly in emerging market economies.

Mrs. Hills served in the Cabinet of President George H.W. Bush as United States Trade Representative and in the Cabinet of President Gerald R. Ford as Secretary of the department of Housing and Urban Development. She also served as Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division, U.S. Department of Justice.

Mrs. Hills currently serves on the International Advisory Boards of J.P. Morgan Chase, Rolls Royce, and the Coca-Cola Company and is a member of the board of Gilead Sciences. She also serves on a number of not-for-profit boards including as Co-Chair of the Council on Foreign Relations and of the International Advisory Board of the Center for Strategic and International Studies; Chair of the National Committee on US-China Relations and of the Inter-American Dialogue; member of the Executive Committee of the Peterson Institute for International Economics and member of the board of the International Crisis Group.

Mrs. Hills graduated from Stanford University and obtained her law degree from the Yale Law School. She holds honorary degrees from a number of colleges and universities. In 2000, Mrs. Hills was awarded the Aztec Eagle, the highest honor given by the Mexican government to a non-citizen of that country.

Before entering government, Mrs. Hills co-founded and was partner in a Los Angeles law firm and served as an Adjunct Professor at the University of California at Los Angeles Law School teaching antitrust law.

Mrs. Hills resides in Washington, D.C. with her husband, Roderick M. Hills. They are the parents of four children.